

Sinclair needs to be made an example of. This is such a blatant example of the corporations running our country and directing our elections--please do not allow this to happen.